STUDENT OF THE WEEK PROGRAM

Highlighting the best of the best from
Denver and surrounding high schools.

The popular and effective La Voz Student of the Week program features a weekly high school senior who excels academically and is involved in community service. The four-year old program is a huge success and returns on October 12, 2016 running through mid-June 2017. This year's program is sponsored by Denver 7, KMGH-TV. The feature is a one-half page highlighting the student including a current photo.

At the end of the program one student is selected by an internal La Voz Committee and will receive a $1,500 scholarship, provided by Denver7 (KMGH-TV), our Student of the Week sponsor, toward their college education. This winner is highlighted in an upcoming issue of La Voz.

STUDENT OF THE WEEK

Student of the Week will feature a high school student from area high schools. Schools will be notified of the program and nominations will be provided to administrators. Nominations will be submitted by the administrators (such as teachers, vice-principals and counselors) from that particular high school. Completed nomination must be approved by the principal or vice-principal. A written comment must also be submitted by approver.

The following criteria is necessary for a student to meet before nomination is submitted. Nominations submitted that do not meet this criteria will be disqualified. Incomplete nominations will also be disqualified.

- Must be full-time student in good standing at area high school
- Must be senior level high school student
- Must maintain a 3.0 GPA per semester in which student is nominated
- Must be active in on-going community service
- La Voz must receive a signed parental release in order for student to be featured in La Voz.
- Must provide recent photo to be used with feature story

Selection Process

A La Voz internal committee will review nominations weekly and students will be selected based on criteria and information submitted. Upon selection, a La Voz committee member will notify area high school administrator. Once process is complete, a parental release and current student photo is required. Student must also provide a brief biography.

Annual Scholarship

One student featured during the school year will be selected by La Voz internal committee to receive a $1,000 scholarship toward his/her college education. Scholarship to be paid out in equal shares by La Voz and advertiser sponsor. Winner will be announced in the last June edition.

The following is an example nomination form to be filled and submitted by high school administrators.
