STUDENT OF THE WEEK PROGRAM

Highlighting the best of the best from Colorado high schools

The popular and effective LaVozColorado Student of the Week program features a weekly high school senior who excels academically and is involved in community service. The 18th-year program is our most popular section and returns on November 5, 2025, running through mid-June 2026. The feature profiles the student, which includes a current photo (provided by the student).

At the end of the program, one student is selected by LaVozColorado's SOTW Committee and that student will receive a $1,500 scholarship toward their college education. The winner is highlighted in a June 2026 issue of LaVozColorado.
